

Zubaidah Jufri, S.H., M.Kn., CHRP.
Partner

Zubaidah is founder and partner of SIP Law Firm. She has been in legal practice business for two decades. Her substantial experience in corporate commercial, corporate restructuring, liquidation and investment is remarkable. She is also an expert in resolving labor and land cases.

EXPERIENCE AND EXPERTISE

Zubaidah spent her early professional work in NGO as an activist. She is experienced in resolving human rights, women and labor issues. Migrant Care (Sahabat Pekerja Migrant) was one of NGO she worked for, where she resolved labor disputes and helped many Indonesian migrant workers safely return to the country. This experience has prepared her to be an expert in labor law.

Before founding SIP Law Firm together with Safitri in 2007, she has acquired wide range of experience in legal research and transactions related to permission, protection, development and exploitation in many sectors, including intellectual property.

With SIP Law Firm, her experience in handling property, health and domestic cases is also well-proven. Her legal advices and solution in these matters are highly appreciated by clients. She enjoys helping clients understand the law and assisting them to achieve their objectives.

Outside of work, Zubaidah regularly attends seminar and workshop on investment, economic sharia, energy and mining studies to improve her knowledge and keep up with the current affairs. She is also active in legal aid organization as supervisory board member and as committee in East Java based social and education foundation.
